PROVISIONS OF THE CODE OF FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICE

As found in Chapter 5 of Division 20 of the California Elections Code

Chapter 5. Fair Campaign Practices

Article 1. General Intent

§20400. Intent of legislature

The Legislature declares that the purpose of this chapter is to encourage every candidate for public office in this state to subscribe to the Code of Fair Campaign Practices.

It is the ultimate intent of the Legislature that every candidate for public office in this state who subscribes to the Code of Fair Campaign Practices will follow the basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play in order that, after vigorously contested, but fairly conducted campaigns, the citizens of this state may exercise their constitutional right to vote, free from dishonest and unethical practices which tend to prevent the full and free expression of the will of the voters.

The purpose in creating the Code of Fair Campaign Practices is to give voters guidelines in determining fair play and to encourage candidates to discuss issues instead of untruths or distortions.

Article 2. Definitions (1)

§20420. Definition of "Code."

As used in this chapter, "Code" means the Code of Fair Campaign Practices.

Article 3. Code of Fair Campaign Practices

§20440. Subscription to code; form

At the time an individual is issued his or her declaration of candidacy, nomination papers, or any other paper evidencing an intention to be a candidate for public office, the elections official, shall give the individual a blank form of the code and a copy of this chapter. The elections official shall inform each candidate for public office that subscription to the code is voluntary.

In the case of a committee making an independent expenditure as defined in Section 82031 of the Government Code, the Secretary of State shall provide a blank form and a copy of this chapter to the individual filing, in accordance with Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code, an initial campaign statement on behalf of the committee.

The text of the code shall read, as follows: (see reverse)

§20441. Supply of forms

The Secretary of State shall print, or cause to be printed, blank forms of the code. The Secretary of State shall supply the forms to the elections officials in quantities and at times requested by the elections officials.

§20442. Retention of forms; public inspection

The elections official shall accept, at all times prior to the election, all completed forms that are properly subscribed to by a candidate for public office and shall retain them for public inspection until 30 days after the election.

§20443. Public record

Every code subscribed to by a candidate for public office pursuant to this chapter is a public record open for public inspection.

§20444. Voluntary

In no event shall a candidate for public office be required to subscribe to or endorse the code.

EC 304. Campaign advertising or communication means a communication authorized by a candidate or a candidates controlled committee, as defined in section 82016 of the Government Code, or by a committee making independent expenditures, as defined in Section 82031 of the Government Code, or by a committee formed primarily to support or oppose a ballot measure, as defined in Section 82047.5 of the Government Code, for the purpose of advocating the election or defeat of a qualified candidate through any broadcasting station, newspaper, magazine, outdoor advertising facility, direct mailing, or any other type general, public, political advertising.

EC305. Candidate for public office means an individual who has qualified to have his or her name listed on the ballot of any election, or who has qualified to have written votes on his or behalf counted by election officials, for nomination for or election to, any state, regional, county, municipal, or district office which is filled at an election.

(The provisions of this chapter do not apply to candidates for federal office.)

CODE OF FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICES

(Elections Code § 20440)

There are basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play which every candidate for public office in the State of California has a moral obligation to observe and uphold in order that, after vigorously contested but fairly conducted campaigns, our citizens may exercise their constitutional right to a free and untrammelled choice and the will of the people may be fully and clearly expressed on the issues.

THEREFORE:

- (1) I SHALL CONDUCT my campaign openly and publicly, discussing the issues as I see them, presenting my record and policies with sincerity and frankness, and criticizing without fear or favor the record and policies of my opponents or political parties that merit this criticism.
- (2) I SHALL NOT USE OR PERMIT the use of character defamation, whispering campaigns, libel, slander, or scurrilous attacks on any candidate or his or her personal or family life.
- (3) I SHALL NOT USE OR PERMIT any appeal to negative prejudice based on a candidate's actual or perceived race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, marital status, age, sexual orientation, sex, including gender identity, or any other characteristic set forth in Section 12940 of the Government Code, or association with another person who has any of the actual or perceived characteristics set forth in Section 12940 of the Government Code.
- (4) I SHALL NOT USE OR PERMIT any dishonest or unethical practice that tends to corrupt or undermine our American system of free elections, or that hampers or prevents the full and free expression of the will of the voters including acts intended to hinder or prevent any eligible person from registering to vote, enrolling to vote, or voting.
- (5) I SHALL NOT coerce election help or campaign contributions for myself or for any other candidate from my employees.
- (6) I SHALL IMMEDIATELY AND PUBLICLY REPUDIATE support deriving from any individual or group that resorts, on behalf of my candidacy or in opposition to that of my opponent, to the methods and tactics that I condemn. I shall accept responsibility to take firm action against any subordinate who violates any provision of this code or the laws governing elections.
- (7) I SHALL DEFEND AND UPHOLD the right of every qualified American voter to full and equal participation in the electoral process.

I, the undersigned, candidate for election to public office in the State of California or treasurer or chairperson of a committee making any independent expenditures, hereby voluntarily endorse, subscribe to, and solemnly pledge myself to conduct my campaign in accordance with the above principles and practices

"Campaign material" includes, but is not limited to, any printed matter, advertisement in a newspaper or other periodical, television commercial, or computer image. The court may award damages in an amount equal to the cost of producing, distributing, publishing, or broadcasting the campaign material that violated this section, in addition to reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

(d) (1) This act shall not apply to a holder of a license granted pursuant to the federal Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. Sec. 151 et seq.) in the performance of the functions for which the license is granted.

For purposes of this subdivision, a "newspaper, magazine, or other periodical that is published on a regular basis" shall not include any newspaper, magazine, or other periodical that has as its primary purpose the publication of campaign advertising or communication, as defined by Section 304.

Political Advertising Disclaimers

Under California's Political Reform Act, committees must put "paid for by" disclaimers on campaign advertising, including campaign mailers, radio and television ads, telephone robocalls, and electronic media ads. This brochure discusses disclaimer requirements for committees that purchase advertisements or circulate material supporting or opposing a state or local candidate or ballot measure in California.

What is a disclaimer?

A "disclaimer" is the portion of a political message that identifies the person or entity who paid for or authorized the communication. "Paid for by committee name" is the basic disclaimer required by the Act on most campaign communications sent by a committee.

Who is a committee?

A candidate's campaign committee, a political action committee, a political party committee, a major donor, and a person or entity making independent expenditures on candidates or ballot measures in California are all types of committees. A person or entity qualifies as a committee under the Act if they receive contributions from others for political purposes of $1,000 or more per year; if they make independent expenditures on California candidates or ballot measures of $1,000 or more per year; or if they make contributions to California candidates or ballot measures of $10,000 or more per year.

When is a disclaimer required on political ads or materials?

Political committees must include the following disclaimers:

- Mass mailings, including blast campaign emails, must include identification of the sender.
- Paid telephone calls must identify the candidate or committee who paid for or authorized the call.
- Radio and television ads must include "paid for by" disclaimer under Federal Communications Commission (FCC) law.
- Ballot measure ads and independent expenditure ads must include "paid for by committee name" and such ads by primarily formed committees must also list top two donors of $50,000 or more. This applies to television, radio, and electronic media advertisements, robocalls, mass mailings, and print ads such as newspaper ads, billboards and yard signs.

Are the Act's disclaimer rules the same for all committees and all ads?

No. Basic disclaimer rules apply to campaign materials disseminated by a candidate for their own election campaign because it is generally clear to the public that the candidate is sending the communication. Stricter disclaimer rules apply to (1) ballot measure advertisements and (2) independent expenditure advertisements on candidates and ballot measures, because it is less clear to the public who is responsible for these ads.

What does the disclaimer have to state?

The basic disclaimer must state: "Paid for by committee name." Ballot measure and independent expenditure ads paid for by primarily formed committees must also list top two donors of $50,000 or more and special committee name rules apply. All independent expenditure ads for or against a candidate must state that the ad was: "Not authorized by a candidate or a committee controlled by a candidate."

What is an independent expenditure?

An "independent expenditure" is an expenditure made by any person in connection with a communication that expressly advocates the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate or measure, or taken as a whole and in context, unambiguously urges a particular result in an election but which is not made at the behest of (e.g., in consultation, cooperation or coordination with) the affected candidate or committee. For further clarification see FPPC Regulation 18225.

On mass mailings, what does the disclaimer state?

A mass mailing -- over 200 substantially similar pieces of mail -- must include on the outside of the envelope: "Paid for by" and the name and address of the candidate or committee sending the mailing. The name and address must be in no less than 6-point type and in a color or print which contrasts with the background so that it is easily read.

If a mass mailing is paid for by more than one candidate or committee, the name and address of the candidate or committee who is paying the greatest share of the mass mailing (including costs for designing, postage, and printing) must be placed on the outside of each piece of mail. If two or more candidates or committees pay equally for the mailer, the name and address of at least one of the candidates or committees must be shown on the outside, and the names and addresses of all candidates or committees paying for the mailer must appear on at least one insert.

Independent Expenditure:

On emails, what does the disclaimer state?

When over 200 substantially similar emails are sent by a political committee, the email must include "Paid for by and the committee name." The committee's street address is not required on mass emails sent by a committee, but may be included.

How must the disclaimer appear?

Disclaimers on political ads and literature must be clear and conspicuous so as to be understood by the intended public. Written disclaimers must be printed clearly and legibly. Spoken disclaimers must be clearly audible and intelligible. Specific requirements for color contrast, print font size and time appearing on screen are listed in the disclaimer charts above.

Updating a disclaimer

When a committee's name changes because of new top donors or otherwise, advertisement disclaimers must be revised. Television, radio, electronic media, or robocalls must be amended within five calendar days. Print media, mass mailings, or other tangible items must be amended every time an order to reproduce is placed.

Advertisements in Languages Other than English

Disclaimers on political advertisements should be written or spoken in the same language used in the advertisement.

Does a disclaimer have to appear on ALL printed materials or campaign items?

No. A disclaimer is not required on regular-size campaign buttons, pins, bumper stickers, or magnets. It is not required on pens, pencils, rulers, mugs, potholders, key tags, golf balls and similar small campaign promotional items where a disclaimer cannot be conveniently printed. The disclaimer is not required on t-shirts, caps, hats, and other articles of clothing; skywriting and airplane banners; or committee checks and receipts.

Does a disclaimer have to appear on communications from an organization to its members?

For political party communications, yes. For communications from other organizations to their members, a disclaimer is not required.

Can the FPPC answer my questions about disclaimers on my campaign communications?

Yes. The FPPC can assist you with questions about disclaimers on campaign communications. Use the Technical Assistance division advice email - advice@fppc.ca.gov. In some cases a copy of the ad will be required.

Is there a penalty for circulating or publishing literature or other material concerning a candidate or ballot measure without a disclaimer?

Yes. The penalty for failing to comply with the Act's disclaimer requirements is a fine of up to $5,000 per violation. In addition, any person who violates the disclaimer requirements concerning ballot measure and independent expenditure advertisements may be liable for a fine of up to three times the cost of the advertisement, including placement costs.

What is the proper procedure to report violations for circulating or publishing materials without a disclaimer?

You may file a written complaint with the Fair Political Practices Commission's Enforcement division.

Can the FPPC check the truth or accuracy of the political communication?

No. The Act does not regulate the truth or accuracy of the content of political communications, given the broad First Amendment protection for political speech.

Must political messages in literature or other material concerning candidates for federal offices include a disclaimer?

Federal election law governs disclaimers on election materials for federal candidates. Contact the Federal Election Commission at www.fec.gov or (800) 424-9530 for information.

“Do not call” lists

Questions or comments regarding “do not call” lists should be addressed to the National Do Not Call Registry, administered by the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) at www.donotcall.gov. The federal Do Not Call Registry is a list of phone numbers of consumers who want to limit the telemarketing calls they receive. The “do not call” provisions do not cover calls from political organizations, charities, telephone surveyors or companies with which a consumer has an existing business relationship.

Posting political signs on utility poles and other public property

Check local ordinances for rules on posters and yard signs. Local law may restrict or prohibit the placement of campaign signs on government-owned property.

This brochure presents a summary of the law. For further legal information, consult the Act and its corresponding regulations and opinions.

PRECINCT MAPPING RESOURCES

The Clerk-Recorder's office has implemented GIS (Geographical Information Systems) technology in maintaining precinct boundaries and map printing. This allows the use of data maintained by various county departments and agencies (Public Works, Assessor, Planning, Cities, LAFCO, the Citizens Redistricting Commission and the Census Bureau) when drawing precinct boundary lines. The use of technology in these functions will result in more accurate and up-to-date maps.

Large format pdf maps (48" x 36") are available free of charge for download on the Clerk-Recorder's website. Maps of the entire county, supervisorial districts, cities, and major communities are available online.

For more detailed viewing, a mapping application is also available with print functionality (11" x 17" maps) on the Clerk-Recorder's website:

PRECINCT MAPS

Every attempt has been made to provide electronic precincts maps to the public on the Clerk-Recorder's website. Upon request, existing pdf maps can be burned onto a cd for $2. Printed versions of existing large format map must be ordered and cost $15 each.

If you have any questions, please contact the Clerk-Recorder office 805-781-5228.
